GRANT ON DIX.

Letter of Congratulation from the President to the Future Governor.

The following letter from President Grant to General Dix, congratulating him upon his nomination by the Republican Convention at Utica has just been made public:

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Aug. 24.

MY DEAR GENERAL: I congratulate you upon the unanimity and enthusiasm of the Utica Convention on the occasion of your nomination for the honorable and responsible position of Governor of the great State of New York. Especially do I congratulate the citizens of that State, almost irrespective of party, upon your nomination. I believe you will receive the active support of the great [illegible] of the best people of the State, and [illegible] sympathy of thousands who are [illegible] so bound up by party ties and pledges as to force them to support your opponent.

To doubt [illegible] election would be to impugn the patriotism and intelligence of a people by whose enlightened discriminations such eminently good men as Tompkins, Clinton, Marcy, Wright, Seward, Fish, King and Morgan have been elevated to the Chief Magistracy of the Empire State. With your election, it follows in the State will naturally follow which, all will acknowledge, have been much needed for years.

No one acquainted with the political history of New York for the past eight years will claim that all the abuses of legislation are due to Democratic rule, but members, or at least pretended members, of both political parties are responsible for them.

When I read the proceedings of the Convention of the 21st inst., and of the unanimity of feeling in favor of you and your associates on the State ticket, I felt that victory had been already achieved, and reform inaugurated in the State of New York.

Again I congratulate you, not upon the prospect of being Governor, but upon having it within your reach to render such service to your State.

It is a happy day when conventions seek candidates, not candidates conventions. This dream has been realized in the action of the [illegible] ation of the 21st inst., at Utica, New York.

I have the honor to be, General, your most Obedient servant,

U. S. GRANT.

Gen. JOHN A. DIX, New York.

Lowland, West Hampton, N. Y., Aug. 27, '72

MY DEAR GENERAL: I am very thankful to you for your kind letter of congratulation on my nomination for the office of Governor of this State. You are aware, no doubt, that I declined it before the convention was held. I am deeply sensible of the honor conferred on me, especially by the manner in which it was tendered; but my objections to the acceptance of the nomination are so strong that I would not think of it a moment were it not for the deep concern I feel in the result of the election, and the great public interests at stake.

I expect Mrs. Dix to arrive from Europe on the 2d or 3d prox., and as soon as I am able to confer with her I shall reply to the letter of the President of the convention, advising me of my nomination. I am, dear General, very respectfully and sincerely yours,

JOHN A. DIX.

His Excellency, U. S. Grant.

POLYGAMOUS EUROPEANS.

A Shipload of Newly Recruited Mormons—Who They Are and What They Look Like.

From the N. Y. World of Tuesday.

Brigham Young seem to devote all his energy to the solution of two problems by the force of one argument. The two questions, as given by the Tribune and Mining Journal, of Salt Lake City, are: Shall the United States Government exert authority over Mormons? and, Shall the social evil be allowed to exert its influences against polygamy? Brigham Young's solution is the importation of a few cargoes of muscular men and comely women—the former possibly for bellicose purposes, and the latter as an especial inducement to the sons of apostates to shun evil ways and accept the faith and words of their fathers. The first cargo arrived last night in the Williams and Guion steamship Minnesota. There were six hundred of them, single men and single women, English from the mining districts, Welsh from the mountains, and Germans from the Rhine Valley. Each nationality was in charge of the apostle who had preached especially in either country, and the three leaders in the conversion of souls will conduct the neophytes to the promised land.

It was not generally known that these polygamously inclined people were coming, and they were therefore left in undisturbed possession of the ship yesterday. They will remain on board until to-day when they will land at Castle Garden and immediately proceed on their journey westward.

In appearance they are a seedy, ignorant lot. The men have evidently been chosen with a view to the development of the mining resources of Utah or for the defence of the place, and the women to become the helpmeets of the men and mothers of future generations of Mormons. The men were mostly large, powerful fellows, with brawny bodies and coarse unintelligent features, therein to embrace the faith of the Latter-day Saints and maintain it against opposition, whether it came in the shape of reasoning or physical force. The women were nearly all under twenty-five, and had evidently been selected by some aged saint who had an eye for souls in fresh, young bodies. There was a noticeable lack of the gaunt, elderly females who are supposed to form the staple for conversion, and this fact, it is said, was frequently remarked during the voyage. That considerable foresight had been displayed in the gathering 200 men and 300 young women is evinced in the fact that during the voyage no sickness occurred, though of course the ship's officers contributed to this happy result.

The men did not care to speak of the faith they had embraced, and when a coy maiden was asked it she knew she was liable to be the consort of a man with a dozen other wives, she maintained her modesty with the diplomatic reply:

"It's na prapper ta ax me, an I shall na tell ye."

She was a blushing girl of twenty-one, and there being some anxiety to know how these young ladies' reconciled purity with polygamy, the question was pressed.

"You surely would rather be the one wife of a man in your own country?"

"I'm me ain mistress, an it's nobody's beesness."

The reply was discouragingly independent, and, moreover, as the Mormon girl moved away a knot of brawny countrymen had gathered with lowering looks, and prudence counseled silence.

It was evident that they had all been cautioned against intruders before the arrival in New York, in order that they might not be made ashamed of their new-found faith or disenchanted with their promised land. They all seemed to know that there was something awkward in the condition they were to bring upon themselves, and were disinclined to speak of it.

Gossip About Western Writers.

A writer in the Overland Monthly, setting out with the assumption that the autograph hunter is curious to note the pot-hooks of the inspired Nubbs, whose poems he has so long and so ardently admired, and that he has so ardently admired, and that he gratified to learn that it is Nubb's custom to scratch at least three lines in every five, and to erect a perpendicular substitute, from time to time, as a necessary support for his uncertain parallels, goes on to say:

Joaquin Miller's manuscript resembles dilapidated hedge-fences. On one occasion, having become hopelessly involved in the midst of his poem, we applied to him personally for relief. He willingly proposed to read us the puzzling passages, but in a few moments he also stumbled, and threw down the mystery, exclaiming: "Damn it. I can't read it myself!" Perhaps scout-bullets and Indian arrows are in some measure accountable for the impediment in his fingers. Dickens affected blue ink; Bret Harte prefers violet; he writes a legible, uniform hand, is a slow producer upon unruled note-paper, and seldom leaves a page without some erasures upon it. His best sentences are laboriously chiseled, and there is much waste of stationery in the process. Probably the quickest and most satisfactory work he did, while editor of the Overland, was the poem entitled, "Dickens in Camp." If we remember, the news of Dickens death reached us on Saturday evening. Bret Harte was then staying at San Rafael. On the following Monday morning, he appeared in unusually good spirits and placed in our hands those remarkable verses which have been pronounced the best poetical contribution to the literature of the day on the death of that distinguished author.

Prentice Mulford stands all his letters in a row as though each were on a separate block, and sprinkles his words sparingly over long, narrow slips of paper. Ina D. Coolbrith, whose poems have been one of the chief features of the Overland since its first issue, writes a swift, flowing hand, as plain as print, with a little whiplash at the top of each a, and a long threat through the eye of every i. Stephen Howers writes a neat and delicate hand, that travels between the lines like a narrow-gauge railway train. Clarence King, whom we may, in a measure, claim as a Western author, talks just as "Mountaineering in the Sierra Nevada" reads. That delightful volume, we are informed, grew under the hand of his amanuensis in King's leisure evening moments during a period of four months, while he paced the room and lived over his wonderful experience again on Shasta and Mount Tyndall. Professor Whitney, our State geologist, is a rather nervous writer, who furnishes accurate and carefully prepared copy.

Straight Democracy.

The straight Democrats have had a rousing mass meeting at Logansport, Indiana, which was addressed by ex-United States Senator Fitch. Speaking of Charles O'Conor, Mr. Fitch said:

"From the very day on which the so-called Democratic Convention at Baltimore sought, as your chairman has told you, to transfer the party, like chattels in the market, to the outskirts of the camp of their political enemy, he has condemned their action, and has done all he could to encourage the movement which culminated in the National Democratic Convention at Louisville. Therefore, had he formerly accepted the nomination there tendered him, he felt—such was his sensitive nature—that his motives would be liable to misconstruction, of its having been his hope and desire to receive the nomination. But it is honorable alike to himself and the party sustaining him that, while he persistently refused to put himself, by any voluntary act of his own, in the position of an officeseeker, they as persistently determined to keep him in the position in which he is now placed. [Applause.]

He is our candidate, and thousands of votes will be cast for him as proof of the confidence of the public in his integrity and principles. [Applause.] Although he declines, by any voluntary acts of his own, to rank himself among the class which he has ever condemned, office seekers, he has not said, does not say, will not say that he will decline to discharge the duties of any office to which the confidence of the American people may elect him."

THE Pittsburgh Mail says: Worse and more of it! Forney, it is now charged, received from the Evans fund the value of fifty thousand dollars, in the form of satisfaction of a mortgage on the Press building, and it is also stated that the information came from Dr. Paine, who imparted it to two "unimpeachable witnesses, ready to be produced when needed." To this charge Colonel Forney of course puts in a prompt denial. We were aware of this fact some months ago, but the statement, as it was alleged to have come from Evans himself, was to the effect that Forney gave a mortgage on the Press establishment for the fifty thousand dollars. That makes seventy-two thousand dollars that the Forney family have secured of the Evans ten per cent. on war claims. No wonder Forney is opposed to Hartranft for exposing the corrupt ring of which he was so profitable a member. When Hartranft assumes the Governor's chair, he will appoint an Attorney General who will ferret this Evans business to its foundation.

REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS.—The Large Room over Julius Weil's Clothing Store, on Diamond Street, will be the Republican Headquarters during the Campaign.

THE TORCH LIGHT PROCESSION and the visiting delegations did not receive, in our report of the Friday's meeting, that full measure of attention they so richly deserved. But our friends will bear in mind that the six columns we published had all to be written and put in type, after they had got through and gone to their homes, and we may be excused if any omissions occurred.

It is to be regretted that the evening procession could not have made a more extended parade. Many houses on Main street were beautifully illuminated and the procession did not touch the street except to cross it on Monroe and Franklin. We cannot give an enumeration of the good people who showed their patriotism by illuminating and other displays, but will mention the beautiful representation of the Goddess of Liberty gotten up by Mrs. A. R. Williams and Mrs. K. Brett. The little daughter of the latter was appropriately dressed and placed in proper position in a window with the sash removed, as the goddess, and surrounded with all the necessary adjuncts, making her seem to be veritable marble and a perfect counterpart of the inspiring genius above alluded to. Had our procession passed that way, the little girl's head would certainly have been turned by the laurels with which she would have been greeted.

Too much praise cannot be awarded to the noble Republicans of all our sister towns and villages for the splendid turnout they made. Those who come to us by cars had but just returned from attending the great Franklin meeting. They did not reach home till 3 o'clock in the morning, and then started out again in the early evening for Titusville.

The Hydetown delegation was a splendid one, and came down in wagons.

The Fagundus "Tinnies" had the longest ride, and evincing much zeal, coming as they did through ten miles of mud in wagons. Their political principles cannot be trifled with. They have enlisted for the campaign and will stand by the cause till the November election binds their brows with the laurels of victory.

The splendid cavalcade from Pleasantville, Shamburg and Bear Farm, surprised us all by its numbers and appearance. The Courier sneeringly says the men were mounted on "plough horses." What a burning disgrace to ride a horse that has drawn a plough! When we get able to own a team, if we ever do, we would like to have our pick from the Pleasantville plough horses, as they appeared here last Friday. We have an indistinct remembrance that Major Hawkins and Colonel Gardner, and many others, rode horses that would make it lively for a plowman to keep up with. But the Republicans of Pleasantville, Shamburg and Bear Farm can put up with their plough horses if the Courier cannot.

HON. H. L. RICHARDSON, our Republican candidate for Congress, has been canvassing Mercer, Clinton and Venango counties for the past few weeks, speaking day and evening. He finds the Republican party united and in earnest, everywhere. In Mercer county, all divisions have disappeared; in Venango, he is cordially supported by all the elements of the party. As he stated in his brief remarks at the Opera House, on Friday evening, he finds there has been a large growth in the Republican party in Clarion county, incident to the progress of oil development, and he looks for a large reduction of the usual Democratic majority there.

We do not know a single Republican in this city or section who will not support Mr. Richardson. His party record is without any stain or cloud; he has always supported the whole ticket and spoken effectively in all party campaigns; he is not a smooth and cunning politician like Mr. Griffith; he is above all chicanery or boasting. He is an able lawyer, an honest man, a Republican by conviction, and ready by argument to recommend his party principles and measures to the general approval. We are to have an address from Mr. Richardson in this city before the campaign is over, and we can assure those who come to hear him that he will make a favorable impression by his ability, candor, and thorough comprehension of the issues involved, State and national.

FIRE AT BENNETT, WARNER & CO'S REFINERY.—About nine o'clock on Saturday morning fire broke out in Bennett, Warner & Co's refinery, on the flats, a mile below Franklin street bridge. It appears that a water tank standing in rear of the boiler and engine-house was supplied with the same pump used for pumping heavy benzine, and by accident quite a considerable amount of the benzine was pumped into it until it overflowed. The fire caught from the boiler furnace, and the burning mass flowed over the grounds, igniting a wooden water tank, the wood-work of the tar still condenser, and several other portions of the premises. The moment the fire was discovered, the coopers working in the cooper shop, about sixteen in number, rushed out with shovels and picks. Two heavy streams of water were also brought to bear, one from a powerful steam pump and the other from a tank on the hillside. About twenty barrels of water per minute were thus in a few moments brought into service, and kept the wood work well saturated, while the shovelers heaped up earth over the fire on the ground. In about twenty minutes the fire was totally extinguished with very trifling damage. A telegram had meanwhile reached the city, and the entire fire department reached the ground after everything was over. It was a long run for the boys, but they went at it with a will, and, as may well be supposed, they took things leisurely on their return. The refinery in question is supplied with ample facilities for extinguishing fires; they can throw a larger amount of water per minute than our entire city fire department at a moment's notice upon any portion of the works, they have also steam pipes introduced to every department for extinguishing fire. The extensive barrel house and shipping platform which contains thousands of empty barrels is supplied with a powerful extra pump and hose. Great credit is due to those in charge and to the entire force of men for their presence of mind and the mastery manner in which the fire was extinguished.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Emery A. Storrs, the distinguished political orator of Chicago, passed last Sunday at the Parshall House, in this city, accompanied by his wife and son. Mr. Storrs has engagements at Pittsburg and Philadelphia before his return west. He spoke on Saturday night at Franklin, and has been invited to Meadville. He has done a great work here.

THOSE who desire a night's fun should not fail to attend the Woodhull and Spotted Tail Ratification Meeting at Rouseville this evening. We are informed that the most elaborate preparations have been made to insure the success of the demonstration. In the language of the poster, "Turn out and give Vic a bumper."

YOUTHFUL DEPRAVITY.—A boy ten years of age was arrested and taken to the lockup yesterday afternoon, for being drunk and disorderly.

A STRAW.—On the train Friday from Erie and Corry a vote showed Grant 162, Greeley 65.

A Card.

We the undersigned, officers of the Titusville Fire Department, would respectfully remonstrate against the usage we have received from the Courier Hose Company, of this city, they not thinking us worthy of an invitation to their hop last evening, and therefore did not send us an invitation to same. We do not consider the treatment we have received from them at all just, or becoming us gentlemen or brother firemen. We have always treated them with the utmost courtesy, as was proved by the reception we gave them on their return from Meadville, and by the complimentary tickets we have sent their officers to any of the balls, picnics, etc., held by the different companies since their organization, and they reciprocate by completely ignoring us, and we consider it a gross insult to the entire Fire Department. We always considered them gentlemen up to the present time, but we have been forced to believe they are not such by their present conduct, and will be guided by it in the future, and treat them as they have done us, and in a manner which they deserve.

Respectfully yours,
P. MEISING,
President Drake Hose.

REMARKS.—The above card shows a bad feeling, a bitter spirit, a sense of wrong and resentment, that is very unpleasant, but which, like all violent emotions, it is better to vent than to suppress.

The allegations of fact raise a question of etiquette, which only the Chesterfields or the Mrs. Grundys of Titusville can hope to decide. But let no man despise etiquette, for to break its laws and ordinances, in the eyes of some, is no less dreadful and unpardonable than to violate the Ten Commandments. Etiquette and fashion make more slaves in this free country than in the Courts of Europe. Social parties make more enemies than friends; those who are left out get mad, and those who entertain sometimes get madder because their invitations are accepted.

If it is the etiquette of fire companies of this city to extend invitations to all the Fire Department or its officers, on occasions of this character, the Courier Hose Company has committed a breach of etiquette; if, on the other hand, the Courier Hose propose to "hop," not as the Courier Hose boys, but in a private capacity, and in their private social relations, they can, perhaps, go through the whole figure without being called to order.

We call upon our astute contemporary to come to the rescue of its abused namesake Now is the time when its friendship can be of some value. We appreciate the embarrassment which our contemporary will labor under, a perplexity which we do not feel, as we look at it with impartial optics. We shall see now whether the Courier, which professes to be the Democratic organ, will undertake to justify aristocratic distinctions in the Fire Department of this city. What is aristocracy? and who are the aristocrats? This is the question of the hour. In some towns it is ancient family; in others it is property; in others it is intellect; in others it is genius; some reverence the skill of the artist; some honor the writer—the orator; some—the inventor; some—the actor; some—the investigator of science; here the creme de la creme is a Hose company, and God save the mark!—the Courier Hose Company. But society is full of shams, shoddy and tinsel. The real man puts on no airs at all, and the real lady—none. There is more pretension among the would-be's than than those who have solid property or worth. Respectability does not depend on externals or the accidents of fortune. The mechanic who eats the bread of industry and pays his honest debts is more respectable than the drone, though he be rich, though the obligation to work seems to come with less force to the rich than to the poor. But surely respectability is not a thing of clothes. We place honesty and industry, moral purity and sobriety, first among the attributes of manhood and social worth. The man who possesses these is a gentleman under our institutions. The Courier Hose Company embraces in its list some worthy gentlemen, and the other fire companies a proportionate number.

There is no social inequality among Firemen, any more than among Soldiers. The Fireman is the fireman "for a' that and a' that." All firemen must run through the same mud, mount the same roof or ladder, hold the same nozzle, take the same butt, fight the same destroying element. It is not the coat sleeve embroidered with gold, but the arm that lifts the axe and strikes the blow; it is not the glittering badge, but the heart behind it, that make the true Fireman.

And, now, in this little matter in of being recognized in a social way, the case has its difficulties and we commit it to the Courier, which has a superior faculty, when it opens its mouth, in an oracular way, of "putting its foot in it." But one thing, the Fire Department generally, and their friends, and they are "legion," have no patience with, and that is the fulsome and sickening laudation bestowed by the Courier newspaper upon the Courier Hose Company and the Courier Band. As if the band could not play a false note, or as if one fireman was better than another. But this is the misfortune of the paper, and what it expected would prove an honor to it, has only proved its weakness and confusion. The Courier bought and paid for the compliment, so that there was no real honor about it, not a particle. That the Courier Hose Company is responsible for this we do not believe, for there are many of its members who, we know, are young men of modesty and worth, who despise flattery, and shun notoriety. We believe, too, that some in the organization think their cognomen was most unfortunate, compromising them politically and in their social relations.

Never mind, veteran firemen of Titusville, you will earn your meed of praise when the city, alarmed and panic-struck by fire in her streets, calls upon you to save her, and in the course of years you will realize that all men find their level, reap what they sow, and get what they earn, and are finally weighed in the scales of public opinion, according to their individual "specific gravity."

BRUTAL ASSAULT ON A WOMAN.—About half-past six o'clock a man named Thomas Garney entered the saloon on Water street kept by Mike Brickner, and drank two glasses of beer, which was the last of the keg. He asked for more beer, but Mrs. Brickner, who was in attendance, her husband being sick, told him that she had not any left in the house. Upon this Garney abused her, using the most profane language, and knocked her down. She ran out in search of a policeman, but Garney followed her and knocked her down two or three times in the street. Policeman Miller soon heard of the affair and arrested Garney, and he was taken with difficulty to the lock-up. He will have a hearing before Justice Strouse this morning at ten o'clock.

THE 20th Annual Fair of the Crawford County Agricultural Society will be held at Conneautville on the 2d, 3d, and 4th days of October. The Secretary, J. E. Rupert, Esq., has our thanks for complimentary tickets.

NATURALIZATION.—A Court of Naturalization will be held at Franklin to-morrow, September 24th. All persons who intend to vote the Republican ticket and wish to procure naturalization papers are invited to call at the Republican Headquarters to-day.

Autumn Flowers.

BY CALEB DUNN.

Autumn flowers by the river side,
Autumn flowers in the shady glen,
I seek you where the fairies abide,
And the wood is peopled with elfish men.

You smile more sadly than in those days
When I sat alone by the beautiful sea,
And watched through the slumbrous, violet haze
The ship that brought William, my own, to me.

William was good as God ever made,
Alas! I know it more fully now
Than when we walked in the hemlock's shade,
Or gathered flowers on the hill's green brow.

Our loves grew ripe on that bright hillside,
Where we carved our names on the chestnut tree,
For there I promised to be his bride—
The bride of a sailor just home from the sea.

We culled sweet flowers from the richest vine
And four leaved clover down by the stream,
While the glad waves laughed and the warm sunshine
Crept in like a joy on our young heart's dream.

And William and I became as one—
For the words we uttered were not a lie—
And in all the wide world there was none
Who knew such perfect joy as I.

But the sea is a fearful path to sail,
For its storms are fierce and its waves unkind;
And Death is the lord who rules the gale,
And makes a conqueror of the wind.

I know it, for William came back no more—
No more from the pitiless sea, to me;
Though I, Love's beacon, watched by the shore,
And wept till my tears were all I could see.

But I love sweet flowers, and I love the hill
Where we lingered that bright autumnal day,
When we pledged our troth and the listening rill
Sang a sweet refrain to our own love-lay.

In every flower I gather now
His image appears like a dream to me,
And that's why I drop from this cliff's high brow
These autumn flowers into the sea.

THE NEW MOVEMENT TO STOP PRODUCING.

Two Hundred and Nineteen Wells Shut Down in the Fagundus District.

Special Dispatch to the HERALD.

FAGUNDUS, September 21.

Two hundred and nineteen pumping wells in this district shut down to-night. If the movement be general all will follow suit.

M. COMPTON,
Secretary Producers Association XVth District.

Shutting Down Wells at Tidioute.

TIDIOUTE, September 21.

To Producers Association:

The producers of Tidioute and vicinity, composing the Sixteenth district, have decided to and will shut down all producing well this evening, to remain shut down if other districts co-operate for thirty days.

R. TAGGART,
President of Meeting.

Amusements.

This evening the people of Titusville are to be offered an entertainment which merits the most generous patronage. Julius Cæsar will be presented at the Parshall Opera House, with Mr Lawrence Barrett as Cassius, Mr. George Metkiff as Mark Antony, Mr. Harry Pearson as Casca, Mr. John Swinburne as Brutus, and Mr. Stanton as First Citizen. The rest of the cast is made up of excellent actors, and there is no doubt that the performance will be one of which the history of the drama in Titusville will long be proud. To those acquainted with the current history of the drama it is unnecessary to speak of the individual merits of the gentlemen who are to appear in this play. Mr. Barrett, Mr. Pearson, Mr. Metkiff and Mr. Stanton are well and favorably known to New York audiences as favorites, and Mr. Barrett made himself famous in that city by his representation of Cassius, in which character he appeared for many nights at Booth's Theatre.

GERMAN POSTAL MONEY ORDERS.—On the first day of October, the principal post offices in the United States (including Titusville,) will begin issuing money orders payable in Germany. The offices of exchange will be New York and Cologne. The general plan is similar to that of the British international money order system, which has been found to work so well. The fees are as follows:—

For $5.00 or less	$0.15
Over $5.00 and not over $10.00	25
Over $10.00 and not over $20.00	50
Over $20.00 and not over $30.00	75
Over $30.00 and not over $40.00	1.00
Over $40.00 and not over $50.00	1.25

In establishing the amount, to be paid in Germany, of any remittance, the gold value of the sum remitted is ascertained by the current premium of gold the day the order reaches New York, and for every 71 cents of such gold value, one thaler or part of a thaler will be paid in Germany. If a person wishes to send $50.00, the amount paid in Germany would be 63⅔ thalers, when gold is at 14 premium. The German money order system will be popular.

A PERSON doubting cannot avoid being convinced of the fact after reading Andrews' great advertisement, which we publish this morning, that the largest stock of dry goods and carpets ever brought to western Pennsylvania is now on sale at the New York Store, 64, 71 and 73 Spring street. We cannot for our lives see why the people of this section of the country cannot suit themselves just as well at Mr. Andrews' establishment as it can in any of the large retail stores of the great eastern cities, for his assortment is just as perfect, and his prices are guaranteed to be as low. The people throughout this section of the country should certainly go to the New York Store and look at the magnificent display Mr. Andrews is now making, and as we stated at the head of this article, they cannot be otherwise than convinced that all of the above is "The Truth, the whole Truth, and nothing but the Truth."

ALL HAIL.—That was a remarkable shower that came up (down we mean) yesterday morning shortly after eleven o'clock. It was one of the liveliest out-pouring that we have seen during the present weather campaign. People outdoors didn't like it, for it hurt their hats and bonnets and was anything but delightful. It was a hail shower and the little pieces of ice came down in fragments as large as chestnuts and in quantities too large to measure. The hail kept up for about five minutes when rain set in and lasted for a very brief period. Things were rattling for a short time, but so far as heard from, nobody was seriously injured. Umbrellas, however, were badly perforated.

A MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—Fifteen years ago the daughter of a well-known and highly respected citizen of Hartstown, Crawford county, now dead, suddenly disappeared. The girl was but fourteen years of age, and there was much conjecture over her mysterious disappearance. Every search was made for her, but without success, and every effort to obtain any clue to her whereabouts proved unavailing. Last Monday the supposed dead girl made her appearance in Hartstown, a handsome and fashionably dressed lady. She stated that she was now proprietoress of a dry goods store in San Francisco, and being on her way to New York to buy goods, thought she would stop at the scenes of her youth and see how everything was. It is said that she declined to give any statement of her life from the time she disappeared from home. As might be expected the affair creates considerable talk in the locality.—The Pennsylvanian.

MATCHED TEAMS.—At the State Fair held in Erie last week we notice that the splendid bay carriage team belonging to our townsman, John Fertig, Esq., came in for a fair share of attention from the admirers of good horses. They drew forth exclamations of admiration from many as they were driven over the track.

ALL persons having capes, capsor torches, in their possession, belonging to the Republican Club of Titusville, are requested to return the same to Republican Headquarters No. 8 Diamond street, as soon as possible.

By order of Committee.

THE LARGEST STOCK OF DRY GOODS AND CARPETS

1,000 Yards Elegant Broche Poplins, at 35c. Sold elsewhere at 50c.

2,000 Yards Heavy Plain Poplins, at 40c. Sold elsewhere at 60c.

800 Yards Superb Satin Striped Cloths, at 75c. Sold elsewhere at $1 00.

1,200 Yards Silk Striped Foulards at 75c. Sold elsewhere at $1 00.

Together with over

FIVE THOUSAND YARDS

Of other desirable Dress Fabrics, consisting of Empress Cloths, Satines, Ballerno Cloths, French and English Cashmeres, Merinos, Serges—striped and plain, Facade Crapolines, Taffeta Poplins, Plain and Brocaded Foulards, Cachemire Scillians, Irish and French Poplins, Plain and Brocaded Velours, comprising all the newest as well as the Richest Fabrics imported this Season.

In my collection of Dress Goods will be found complete lines of all the New and Fashionable Colors now in vogue, including the famous Bronze, Sage, Olive, Zinc, and Peacock shades. I have different grades of material in these colorings, therefore no one need experience any difficulty in selecting the quality that will suit their means or purpose best.

☞ I claim that I have on exhibition an assortment of Dress Goods that will compare favorably with any to be found in the State, all of which I am offering at as low prices as the same qualities can be sold by any dealer in the great Eastern cities, therefore there is no necessity for the people hereabouts to send away from home to purchase this class of Goods. Those who have not already examined my stock of dress fabrics are respectfully invited to call and see the same, no matter whether they are ready to purchase or not. It will give them an idea of the Styles and Colors now in vogue, as well as the prices current for the various qualities.

IN MY SILK DEPARTMENT,

The Stock is unusually attractive, the collection embracing complete lines of Plain and Fancy Colored Silks, as well as many novelties in Brocades, suitable for Overskirts. The last named are the richest fabrics ever shown in this market and should be seen to be fully appreciated. I have a line of plain-colored Gros-Grains to match in shade all of the Brocade Patterns, so that those who desire an entire suit will be able to procure the materials for the same. In order to convey something of an idea, to those who have not as yet examined the stock in this Department, of the extent and magnitude of the collection. The following is respectfully submitted, viz:

I AM NOW OFFERING IN MY SILK DEPARTMENT.

1,000 Yards Handsome Striped Silks at $1.00. Sold elsewhere at $1.50.

500 Yards Black and White Striped Silks at $1.25. Sold elsewhere at $1.75.

1,000 Yards Elegant Striped Silks in Black, White and Colored Stripes at $1.50. Sold elsewhere at $2.00.

500 Yards Rich Striped Silks at $1.65. Sold elsewhere at $2.25.

500 Yards very Heavy and Rich Striped Silks in all colors, at $2.00. Sold elsewhere at $2.50.

1,000 Yards Plain Silks, comprising all colors suitable for Day and Evening Costumes, at $2.00. Sold elsewhere at $2.50.

1,000 Yards Colored American Silks (excellent goods for service), in all the New and Fashionable shades, at $2.25. This is A. T. Stewart's established Price.

Together with great lines of Plain Silks, embracing all colors, from the darkest to the lightest shade for which there is any demand, at $2.50, $2.75, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00, and $6.00 per yard, all of which prices are guaranteed to be as low as those demanded in any city of the Union for like qualities of goods.

Those having any idea of purchasing Silks this season are respectfully requested to call and look at my assortment, for I am satisfied that I can make it apparent to them that their interests can be served in purchasing those goods at my counters.

As it is now exceedingly fashionable to make up suits from two different shades of material, my Buyer exercised great care in selecting my assortment of Silks in order to meet this demand. Thus take it in Brown, Blue, Green, Plum, Olive, Bronze, Sage, Peacock, &c., I can show several shades and in various qualities, as it oftentimes seems that a lady will buy for an overskirt a better quality than she will for the underskirt.

IN BLACK SILKS

My Stock is Superb, in fact it is perfect in all its details, commencing with a quality at $1.25 and advancing upwards until the sum of $9.50 is reached, the last-named price being for the BEST BLACK SILK MADE. Particular attention is invited to the qualities that I have on sale at $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50, $2.75, $3.00, and $3.50. These are all popular numbers. They are of the manufacture of some of the best French makers and give satisfaction in every instance to the consumer. The same grades cannot be bought elsewhere in this section of the country within 50 cents to $1.00 per yard higher figures than the rates quoted by me.

This is an Important fact and one that Consumers Should not lose Sight of.

IN JAPANESE SILKS, I HAVE ON SALE

1,000 Yards in Assorted Styles, at 30c. Sold elsewhere at 50c.

1,200 Yards in Assorted Styles, at 37½c. Sold elsewhere at 60c.

1,000 Yards in New and Handsome Designs, at 45c. Sold elsewhere at 65c.

900 Yards Extra Quality and Beautiful Effects, at 50c. Sold elsewhere at 75c.

Together with a splendid variety in better qualities, both plain and fancy, comprising all that is new and novel in this class of Goods this season, all of which I am offering at attractive prices. Consumers are invited to call and look at them.

MANTILLA VELVETS.

In Velvets suitable for Mantillas, my Stock is very attractive and consists of all grades from a German article at $5.00 per yard, up to the best quality produced at Lyons, France, which I am selling at $25.00 per yard. From the fact that my stock is so complete, embracing as it does all the various grades from the cheapest to the best, it affords to consumers greater advantages in making their selections than those offered by any other House in this section of the country.

The Numbers offered by me at $6.00, $7.50, $9.00, $12.00, $13.50, $15.00, and $16.50, are the most popular grades and merit the especial attention of all those who have Velvets to buy.

In Silks, Velvets, Satins and Epinglines,

SPECIALLY DESIGNED FOR TRIMMINGS,

I have an immense variety, comprising all colors to be found in Dress Goods.

BLACK AND COLORED VELVETEENS.

My assortment of this class of goods is very complete, embracing all colors and qualities for which there is any demand. In Black I have on sale the following grades, viz: At 85c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, and $4.00 per yard, guaranteed to be 25 per cent. less in price than like qualities are sold by other dealers he reaboute.

☞ Parties residing at a distance desiring to purchase any of the goods advertised by me in these columns, can order the same forwarded by express and can pay the bill to the Express Agent upon delivery of the goods.

WM. H. ANDREWS,

GREAT NEW YORK STORE, 69, 71 and 73, SPRING STREET,

CITY OF TITUSVILLE, PA.

I AM NOW OFFERING AT THE

THE GREAT NEW YORK STORE,

69, 71 and 73 Spring street,

In Ladies' Cloaks and Jackets,

My assortment can be expressed as superb. I have in these goods a multitude of styles, both Foreign and Domestic, and made up from various kinds of material, amongst which will be found those made up from Astrachan, Beaver, Cashmere Velvetteens, Silk Velvet, Basket Cloth, &c. &c. Prices for these goods range from $3.00 to $100.00 each. It is useless to attempt to describe the various styles, for to do it properly it would require too much space. But on this the ladies can depend, my assortment comprises all styles that are both new and novel, and if I cannot suit them with a ready made garment their only resource will be to buy the material and have one made to order.

In Ladies' Ready-Made Suits,

I have a complete assortment adapted to the season, ranging in price from $10.50 to $65.00 each. I have a line of ladies suits made up from water-proof cloth which are specially desirable at this season for traveling or street wear. Also a complete assortment of Ladies Water-proof Cloaks or over-dresses in various qualities.

IN NAPKINS,

My stock is very large and attractive, comprising all qualities, from 65 cents to $15.00 per dozen. The grades offered at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.25, and $2.50 per dozen, will prove upon examination to be equal to those sold elsewhere at $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.25, $2.75, $3.00, and $3.50 per dozen.

IN TOILET QUILTS,

I have on sale a splendid assortment. Special attention is called to the qualities which I am offering at $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $4.50, and $5.00. Hotel and house keepers will find it to their advantage to examine these quilts, as I have no hesitation in saying that my prices are 33⅓ per cent. less than the rates demanded by other dealers throughout this section of the country for like qualities.

Wool Blankets.

My stock of Blankets is very complete, embracing all qualities of White and Grey for which there is any demand. In White Blankets I am offering the following grades, viz: At $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00, $6.00, $7.50, $8.00, $9.00, $10.00, and upards. The Dissatisfaction in Missouri.

At a late meeting of Irish citizens of St. Louis resolutions were adopted to issue an address to their countrymen in Missouri in condemnation of the treachery of the Democratic party to them. A telegram to the Cincinnati Gazette says that the dissatisfaction among the Irish in St. Louis seems to be growing, notwithstanding the efforts of the Democrats to mollify them by assurances that they shall be well paid with places on the county ticket. At a meeting in South St. Louis, mainly composed of Irish laborers and workmen in iron-works there, Hon. John O'Neil, a Democrat of twenty-five years' standing, announced his severance with that party in most emphatic terms, and his speech was loudly applauded, especially when he said: "I am not here for the purpose of making a regular set speech on political argument, but merely for the purpose of making this announcement to a large and respectable audience of my fellow-countrymen, that now and henceforth I attach myself and cast my fortunes with the great National Union Republican Party of America. I am here to declare to you that I am no longer a member of the so-called Democratic Party, whether State, national, or municipal."

The Anzeigenem, a Democratic paper of St. Louis, has dropped the Democratic State ticket from the head of its columns.

of fifty acres, located on Pithole Creek, in the centre of the Pithole oil field, twenty-five acres of which, in a body in the centre of the farm, are untouched by development. A superior fourth sand rock, varying from twenty to thirty feet in thickness, underlies the farm, and developments as far as prosecuted have been successful, wells varying in production from ten to three hundred barrels a day having been obtained, and successful operations are being prosecuted a few rods distant on the Holmden farm, adjoining on the west. Oil operators are invited to examine the premises. Reliable information relative to the past, present and prospective of the farm may be obtained on application to Titusville Pipe Company.

NOTICE.

OFFICE OF THE TITUSVILLE PIPE CO., }
TITUSVILLE, PA., June 19, 1872. }

Oil is received by this Company for TRANSPORTATION ONLY NOT FOR STORAGE. It is ready for delivery to the owner within twenty-four hours, after its receipt by the company, and any liability incurred by the company, ceases upon the expiration of twenty-four hours. Owners of oil are expected to remove it with promptness, and if not so removed, it remains entirely at the OWNER'S RISK OF LOSS FROM WHATSOEVER CAUSE OCCURRING.

All oils now in the company's tanks which shall not be removed therefrom within two months from the date of its receipt by the company, will be subject to an additional charge of one cent per barrel per day from the date of its receipt until its removal.

All oil hereafter received by the company, which shall be allowed to remain in its tanks longer than one month, shall be subject to an additional charge of one cent per barrel per day from the date of its receipt until its removal.

Receipts will be issued for oil. Orders upon the company will not be recognized.

This company has tankage amply sufficient for all the reasonable requirements of its customers, and is disposed to afford them all the facilities in its power; but of late our tanks have been overcrowded by the failure of owners to remove their oil, to the great inconvenience of producers along our line who have been unable to get oil removed from their wells.

To remedy this difficulty and still meet all the legitimate wants of producers and the trade, the above system of additional charges has been adopted.

Lake House,

STONEBORO, Mercer County, Pa.

This celebrated house has been recently refurnished, and will be open for the reception of guests on Monday, June 10, 1872. Persons wishing to engage rooms, or obtain other information, may address SAM'L ROSENBURG, Stoneboro, Pa.

This favorite summer resort is delightfully situated a few rods from Sandy Lake, the most beautiful sheet of water in Pennsylvania, and is well stocked with fish; pleasure boats and fishing tackle of all kinds under the charge of an experienced sailing-master. Have bedded the billiard room and re-piped all in first-class style. Also, a barber shop, bath room and livery stable are connected with this favorite summer resort. Seekers for health, as well as for recreation and fine rural scenery, will find in the Chalybeate Spring on the grounds, all the virtues of tonic treatment found at the most celebrated watering places. By chemical analysis, one gallon of water was found to contain 10.80 grains of mineral substances, consisting principally of carbonate of lime, held in solution by carbonic acid gas, associated with small quantities of carbonate of protoxide of iron, sulphate of magnesia, chloride of sodium, and traces of silicia and organic matter. The analysis was made by the Professor of Chemistry in the Laboratory of the Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery.
